

GERMAN A LEVEL

Course Content
Modules: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Being a young person in German-speaking society• Understanding the German-speaking world• Diversity and difference• The making of modern Germany 1989 onwards In-depth study of a film and a literary text.
Teaching and Learning
During the course students will develop their understanding of the spoken and written forms of German from a variety of registers. (Radio recordings, TV recordings, interpret newspapers/magazines, internet). They will learn how to communicate clearly and imaginatively in German through both spoken and written word, using increasingly accurate complex and varied language. They will increase their sensitivity to language and language learning. They will develop critical insights into, and contact with, the contemporary society, cultural background and heritage of countries where German is spoken. They will be offered the opportunity to do work experience in Germany. They will be given the chance to attend lectures directed to post 16 students in universities in the North West. Exchange visits with our German partner schools in Cologne and Attendorn are regularly undertaken.
Assessment
Component 1: Speaking (21-23 minutes) Component 2: Listening, Reading and Translation (2 hours 30 minutes) Component 3: Critical Response in Writing (2 hours)
Progression
The course provides a foundation for the study of German or related courses in further and higher education. Universities are encouraging Science as well as Arts students to keep up their knowledge of Modern Languages. Languages can be useful in Banking, Broadcasting, Civil Service, Export Sales and Marketing, Insurance, International Organisations, Journalism, Legal Professions, Library Work, Market Research, Public Relations, Retailing, Secretarial Work, Tourism.
Entry Requirements
Grade C GCSE German, Higher Paper
Examination Board
Eduqas
Further Details
Mrs K Boyland